

ABSTRACT:

A small gun glove holster is designed for either the left or right hand to be worn while working, or to keep handy in a night stand. This allows the user to keep readily at ease the need of protection, and keep both of your hands free while operating in the dark for their protection.